

HELPING YOUR CHILD GET THE MOST OUT OF A LUTHERAN EDUCATION

As Lutheran educators, the faculty of St. John's is convinced all children need:

- A. Christian Education based on God's Word; which leads toward a Christian life of serving God in church, community, and country; and involves the whole person (spiritual, mental, physical, social emotional).
- B. An education in secular areas, taught in the light of God's Word, will and design.
- C. Daily Christian peer-fellowship and school activities experienced in a Christ-centered environment, directed by Christian teachers.

As Parents of a St. John's student, We Pledge:

- A. To pray for our child and all involved in his/her education;
- B. To provide a Christian atmosphere in our home, which is the most vital influence on our child's life.
- C. To attend church and Bible Class/Sunday School regularly, in keeping with my Lord's directive in the Third Commandment.
- D. To contribute financially to our place of worship, regularly and sacrificially, keeping in mind the manner in which the Lord has blessed us.
- E. To encourage and admonish our child(ren) to obey teachers and the school's rules cheerfully and promptly.
- F. To cooperate with and uphold the teachers in the exercise of Christian discipline and in the training of our child(ren), and to go directly to the teacher in a Christian manner if questions or concerns arise. (see Matt. 18:15).
- G. To take an active role in seeing that our child's assigned homework is completed, and to provide a place and opportunity for completing the task.
- H. To take into account our child's extra-curricular involvement and to encourage completion of these commitments.
- I. To fulfill the volunteer time obligation of 4 hours per semester in support of St. John's Lutheran School and its staff.
- J. To fulfill our financial obligation to St. John's Lutheran School in a timely manner. By executing this document, the parent/guardian agrees to be contractually obligated for all tuition and costs in connection with their child's enrollment.

With the grace and help of God, I understand and fully accept the covenant that I am making this day and pledge to honor the commitments as stated above.
